Gary G. Weishaar Selected As Assistant Inspector General

The Montgomery County Office of Inspector General (OIG) announces Gary G. Weishaar has been selected as Assistant Inspector General. Mr. Weishaar comes to the OIG from AARP, where he served as Senior Manager of Forensic Audit, Audit and Advisory Services, Office of General Counsel from 2005-2009. He also served as National Director, Fraud and Risk Management, National Association of Credit Management (2004-2005), and as Director of Special Investigations for AIC (1995-2004).

Mr. Weishaar's education includes a Master's of Business Administration from Loyola University and a Bachelor's Degree from Towson University. He is also a certified inspector general by the Association of Inspectors General and Certified Fraud Examiner by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners.

He is a member of the Board of Trustees for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society and a member of the Audit Committee for the Carroll County Public School System. He is also a Certified Fraud Claims Specialist. He received a Governor's Citation for Anti-Fraud initiatives and was appointed to the Governor's Executive Advisory Council on Fraud and the Governor's Anti-Car Theft Committee.

The OIG is an independent office that serves as a watchdog to detect and prevent fraud, waste, and abuse in County Government departments and County-funded agencies. Its mission includes reviewing the efficiency and effectiveness of programs and operations, and making recommendations to increase legal, fiscal, and ethical accountability.
